Council Information: (from Mavis O'Neil, on behalf of Council)

As mentioned previously, we have negotiated a slightly different rental agreement with the Masonic Hall folk. Instead of paying per usage, we will pay a flat monthly rental fee which allows us to use the facility as many times per month as we wish subject to availability. Council believes this new arrangement is a win-win situation for both parties.

If you would like to use the hall for a Faith United related activity, please check with Fannie and Jim Hunter as to availability. They have the hall schedule.

Calling all bowlers!! Milton Area Christian Churches Working Together is holding their 6th annual bowl-a-thon to raise funds for "On the Way to Bethlehem". The event is to take place at Champs on Bronte St. on Saturday Oct. 21 and in order to participate we require a team of 5 or 6 bowlers who can commit to raising pledges of at least $50 each.

Are you interested?? It has been loads of fun in the past!! Please contact Rebecca at 905-864-8955 or rhunter@cogeco.net if you are and we will see if we can enter a team!! Hope to hear from you! Cheerleaders are also welcome!
